Reading passage:

Once upon a time there was a poor fisherman called Li. His father Josh was blind and his wife Emma wished a baby. Every day, he went down to the sea to fish. There he stood on the rocks and threw the nets into the icy waters and waited. When he pulled the nets in, he would take any fish back to the market and sell them. One day, he caught a huge fish. It had sliver scales that glittered in the sunlight, blood-red fins and a golden crown. It was so beautiful that Li stood, amazed, staring at the fish as it thrashed about in the net. Suddenly Li felt guilty. It was so beautiful and surely it must have a family. So, Li scooped it up out of the net and set it free. Li stood watching as the fish swam out to sea. Then, to his amazement. It turned and spoke to him. "Li, you have saved the King of fish, I grant you one wish. Tell me your heart's desire." Li shouted, " I wish for my father to see my son in a cradle made of gold". Li became a rich fisherman.

Write a paragraph about Your Favorite Recipe. Give your opinion about it.

Crack the eggs into a bowl, add the milk with salt and pepper and beat the mixture with a fork. Heat a medium sized pan over a medium heat and add the butter. Add the egg mixture to the pan and as it begins to cook. Fold over in half to create a semi-circle. You can add extra fillings like cheese or mushroom. Then flip the unfilled side over onto the filled half. Let the folded omelet cook for a minute, then slide it out of the pan and onto a plate. Serve and eat immediately. Cooking is fun. I love that cooking give me a chance to be creative.

Good luck

When we use a reflexive pronoun in this way, it means the same as alone or independently and is added for emphasis. In other words, it's grammatically correct to say I made the cake, but adding myself ☻ it was done without help.

Use the reflexive pronoun when the subject and the object are the same person.

you	→	yourself	you	→	yourselves
he	→	himself
