Entertainment

What do you like to do for entertainment? A research company recently asked this question to thousands of people in different cities and towns. The top four answers in order were: 1) watch TV; 2) use the Internet; 3) watch films; and 4) read books.

Many people were surprised by these results. They thought that more people liked to go out to restaurants and parks or spend time in the mall. But an increasing number of people prefer to stay home and watch TV and films in their own living room. "Going out with friends is too expensive," one respondent said. "And it is more comfortable to be at home on your own couch, watching TV. Also there are many films available on TV now so we don't have to go out and rent a DVD from a video store."

Many restaurants and video stores offer all kind of small gifts and discounts to attract customers, but the amount of people who prefer to stay at home rather than go out continues to increase. As the internet takes over and viewers have access to more channels and programmes, even more people will be staying home for their entertainment!

Moby Dick (1956), directed by John Huston and starring Gregory Peck, Richard Widmark and Leo Genn, is a TV fantasy film adapted from the bestselling novel by Herman Melville. The story takes place in 19th century England on a whaling ship. The captain of the ship is Captain Ahab. Ahab has a fantastic story to tell about a "great white whale" which mutilated his body and almost killed him on a previous voyage. Now the captain leads his men back into the sea to take revenge. However, Ahab becomes so obsessed with vengeance that he makes some very bad decisions. The TV film takes us on a grand adventure over the waves as Captain Ahab and his crew seek out the great sea mammal. As Ahab becomes more and more consumed by hatred, his doomed men are flung into dangerous situations. Does Captain Ahab eventually find the big whale? To find out you will have to watch the film! If you choose to watch one film version of the novel Moby Dick, you should choose this 1956 version. The acting is good, it is well-directed and the use of color and imagery is superb. I think it is far superior to more recently released TV film versions. Everyone who read the book and those who enjoy adventure and tales of great battles between man and beast should see this TV film. I definitely recommend it as one of the best of our times. It is staggeringly good.

20. The TV film is adapted from a documentary about great white whales.

21. The TV film is as good as the original story told in the novel.
